New Ballpark Citizens Committee
Report to the Mayor and City Council

www.NewBallparkInc.org

March 2001

Creating a Vision

for a compact transit-oriented ballpark in an urban neighborhood.

A compact, transit-oriented ballpark in an urban neighborhood.

It's the right thing to do.

The Design Charrette

- Answers questions
- Engage the public and stakeholders
- A forum on design priorities and aspirations
- Three phase process
 1. Pre-charrette
 2. Charrette
 3. Synthesized design back to the community

Keys to Success Strategy

- Create civic value
- Create human value
- Create economic value
- Tie to housing, transportation and employment
- What's around the ball park is as important as the ball park itself

Transformation for the Common Good

We physically transform and connect the North Loop area for the common good of people, businesses and the greater Minneapolis community.
